Grassroots Public Comment Workbook

A Republic, If You Can Keep It!

STOP THE DEEP STATE STRATEGY

Government Goes to Those Who Show Up

TRACK YOUR GOVERNMENT. TARGET THE DEEP STATE. SHOW UP.

HOW TO STRUCTURE PUBLIC COMMENT SO IT FIXES HOW YOUR GOVERNMENT OPERATES

- 1 Identify the self-interest of the elected officials. Resources like Ballotpedia and their X accounts can help. Consider following their accounts on X with notifications on.
- 2 Identify the levers of political power, especially the associations, influencing your elected officials. (It might be helpful to reach out to your neighbors to find out what they think about the issue.)
- 3 Find weaknesses or strengths in the policy position the agenda item is based on that are compelling to the constituents of the elected officials. ALWAYS keep your comments pertinent to the issue of the agenda item.
- 4 Write an introduction for your public comment with your WHO and your WHY. Are you a PC, a parent, grandparent, a veteran, a business owner, etc.? How are you impacted by the bill? Why are you involved with this policy issue? Example: My name is _____ and I am a PC in LD__. I got involved because _____, and I care about this issue because _____.

IMPORTANT GUIDELINES FOR PUBLIC COMMENT

PAY ATTENTION TO THE ADHERENCE OF OPEN MEETING & PUBLIC COMMENT LAWS AS THE MEETING IS IN PROGRESS. CALL IT OUT RESPECTFULLY WHEN VIOLATED.

- ALWAYS keep your comments pertinent to the agenda or bill
- NEVER attack or impugn the motives of elected officials
- ALWAYS show decorum

When sending an email, make sure to include the bill number or agenda item # & the topic in the subject line. Put whether to support or oppose the item in all CAPS.
