RULES FROM THE AZ SECRETARY OF STATE

Citizenship Requirement

Only U.S. citizens are eligible to register to vote.

- U.S. citizenship must be sworn to when registering to vote.
- Documentary proof of citizenship (DPOC) is required to be registered as a "full-ballot" voter. A "full-ballot" voter is entitled to vote for all federal, state, county, and local races as well as state and local ballot measures for which the voter qualifies.
- An eligible registrant who does not submit DPOC and whose U.S. citizenship cannot be verified via AZMVD records or other record in the statewide voter registration database is registered as a "federal-only" voter. A "federal-only" voter is eligible to vote solely in races for federal office in Arizona (including the Presidential Preference Election (PPE)).

Ariz. Const. Art. VII, § 2; A.R.S. § 16-101(A); 18 U.S.C. § 611(a).

YOU DO NOT NEED TO ASK THE VOTER FOR THEIR ID

While it's recommended the voter complete the Driver's License section of the voter ID form, it's not required.

The Recorder's Office is required to get proof of ID/citizenship before making them a full active voter.

Residency Requirements

The voter registration deadline is 29 days before Election Day. You must be registered to vote at your current residence.

If you are out of town during the election

- A registrant may be temporarily absent from the jurisdiction without losing their residency status, only if the registrant has an intent to return. A.R.S. § 16-103. You may contact your County Recorder directly to request a ballot by mail be sent to you. The request must be made at least 11 days before Election Day: County Election Info

If you move after the voter registration deadline

- If you move within the same county during the 29-day period preceding the election, you will remain a qualified elector for the next election. You may update your voter registration at an in-person voting location, be aware you may be required to complete a provisional ballot.
- If you move to a different county during the 29-day period preceding the election, you will remain a qualified elector at your former residence and must vote in the former county.
- If you move to a different state during the 29-day period preceding the next election, you are no longer a qualified elector (and is therefore ineligible to vote) in Arizona. However, you retain the right to vote in Arizona for President of the United States (and no other races) during a Presidential election year. Requesting a presidential-only ballot requires the County Recorder to cancel the registrant's record "promptly" following the general election.

THINGS TO KNOW

- You cannot discriminate against voters. If someone registers with a Party Preference you disagree with, you must turn in the voter registration form.
 - TIP: What you wear will attract specific types of voters (i.e. wear America First or patriotic gear to attract conservative voters).
- You cannot encourage a voter to register as a specific party.
 - TIP: You may inform the voter of the rights of being able to vote in the Presidential Preference Election or be a precinct committeeman when registered as a Party.
- Do not make any changes or additions to the form after the voter has filled it out. It is a misdemeanor to do so.
 - TIP: If you are assisting with filling out the voter registration form, with the voters consent, make sure you sign and date section 24.
- Confirm the registration is fully filled out and correct prior to removing the carbon copy. You can not make changes after the two pages are separated.
- The carbon copy is for the new voter to retain. DO NOT SEPARATE THE CARBON COPY UNTIL YOU'VE CHECKED THE FORM IS COMPLETE. On the top right of the form, labeled "Box for Office Use Only," is specific to that person's registration form. The voter cannot change anything on the form once the carbon copy is separated.
- Advise the new voter that if their Voter Registration card has not been received within four weeks, call their County Recorder (found on the back on the bottom of form) and refer to the number located above the barcode, top right of the form.

- Be ready with an action item
- Prepare a 10 to 20 sec pitch for when people come to your table
- Volunteers should stand in front of your table to greet people to come over - Candy at the table helps
